

Dorn to Release State Testing Results

OLYMPIA — State Superintendent Randy Dorn will release spring 2013 state testing results at 10 a.m., Monday, Aug. 26, at the John A. Cherberg Senate Office Building in Olympia.

The release will consist of results from the spring administration of:

- the Measurements of Student Progress, taken by students in grades 3-8;
- the High School Proficiency Exams in reading and writing, taken by high school students; and
- end-of-course exams in algebra I, geometry and biology.

TVW, Washington's statewide public affairs television station, will broadcast and Webcast the news conference live. See www.tvw.org for Webcast details.

Reporters unable to attend can ask questions live via Twitter @waOSPI using the hashtag #WAscores2013. They may also speak by phone with Superintendent Dorn by appointment only. To schedule a call, contact Nathan Olson at (360) 725-6015, (360) 584-8967 or Nathan.Olson@k12.wa.us.
