

Roundtable education sessions set for Seattle and Spokane

The Washington Roundtable and its education foundation, Partnership for Learning, are hosting two events to discuss education needs in Washington. They have titled the sessions “Real Learning for Real Life.” You may want to attend.

The first will be in Seattle on September 10. The next day, September 11, they will host a discussion in Spokane. Both events are from 8 am to 12 noon.

The groups are hoping to raise awareness of 21st century education challenges and build support around three critical issues: the skills gap, Common Core State Standards and assessments and college- and career-readiness. Tom Vander Ark, CEO of Getting Smart, a learning advocacy firm, will deliver the keynote address at both sessions.

Registration is open for both the Seattle and Spokane sessions. The Seattle event will be held Seattle Airport Marriott, 3201 South 176th Street, Seattle, WA 98188. The Spokane event will be at The Davenport Hotel, 10 S Post Street, Spokane, WA 99201.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Anne Heavey at the Partnership for Learning.