

State Board of Education seeks input on proposed Charter School Rules

On the January 9-10 State Board of Education meeting, members discussed draft rules pertaining to Sec. 209 of the state's first public charter school statutes. The draft rules are now available for your review.

We continue to seek feedback on these draft rules. We encourage you to review the proposed rules and to provide your perspective by contacting us at sbe@k12.wa.us.

Your input will be valuable to the Board as they consider these rules for final adoption at the March 13-14 meeting in Tumwater, Washington. Board members will also be holding a formal public hearing on the proposed rule language at that meeting.
