

Central Valley HS Marching Band and Colorguard Invited to Presidential Inauguration

The Central Valley High School Marching Band and Colorguard have been invited by the 2013 Presidential Inaugural Committee to represent the state of Washington in next month's Inaugural Parade in Washington D.C.

The band will depart January 17 and stay in Baltimore, MD while they perform at the Presidential Inaugural Heritage Music Festival in Brooklyn Park, Maryland. It will march in the world televised Presidential Parade on Monday, January 21st.

The band will perform a series of patriotic tunes including When Johnny Comes Marching Home, Shenandoah, Battle Cry of Freedom and the Battle Hymn of the Republic. Local supporters are documenting the bands preparations at www.facebook.com/cvmarchingband.
